Attention: Jean Strickland

Dear Jean,

I hope that you are still at the library as I need help again. Nothing on Garraws but a bit on a Hobbs family who lived in Clark Co. Miss in 1860, were in the 1866 Census of a Clark Co. Book I found yesterday in the Cobb Co. library Marietta, Ga.

This is the family in Marion Co. Ga in 1850
Robert Hobbs 53, William 23, Sarah 20, Narcissa 18, Meliss 17,
Francis A 12, Levenia 9.

Francis A married James Sanders 1-10-1856 in Ga.

(This is showing as Miss on the 1880 in Texas)

I could not tell what the first initial was.
Nor be better this was a "T" or an "L" may be

The wife's name in Hunt Co. is Henrietta in Union Parish La in 1880 - in Hardin Co TX in 1900

Now for questions - I can not find in 1870.

I do not know why I can't find the name of William's wife in the Marion Co Ga records - the father Robert must have married in Ga after 1850 but before 1860. I know the name of the first wife but you see that she is dead in 1850, there is no wife in 1860.

In the 1866 Census of Clark Co. it shows him with one female child young I won't go into all that though - Maybe it should have been a son as Robert is only 7.

Francis 2 2 Ga

(female) M. E. 7/12 Miss

The 1866 Census is showing her with 2 ^{under 5} sons & one son under 5 no husband. I looked at new books on Miss. at Cobb Co. checking to see if James Sanders died in the Civil War but could not tell.

Now all the help I want is - Can you check to see if Sarah, Narcissa, Levenia Hobbs married in Clark Co. Maybe this would give me a lead as to where the families were in 1870. I'm not interested in any other Hobbs as I have looked at many Miss. books here in Ga.

Oh yes if Francis Sanders married again.

Thank you so much if you can help. Bill me as Cobb Co. does.

Sincerely,

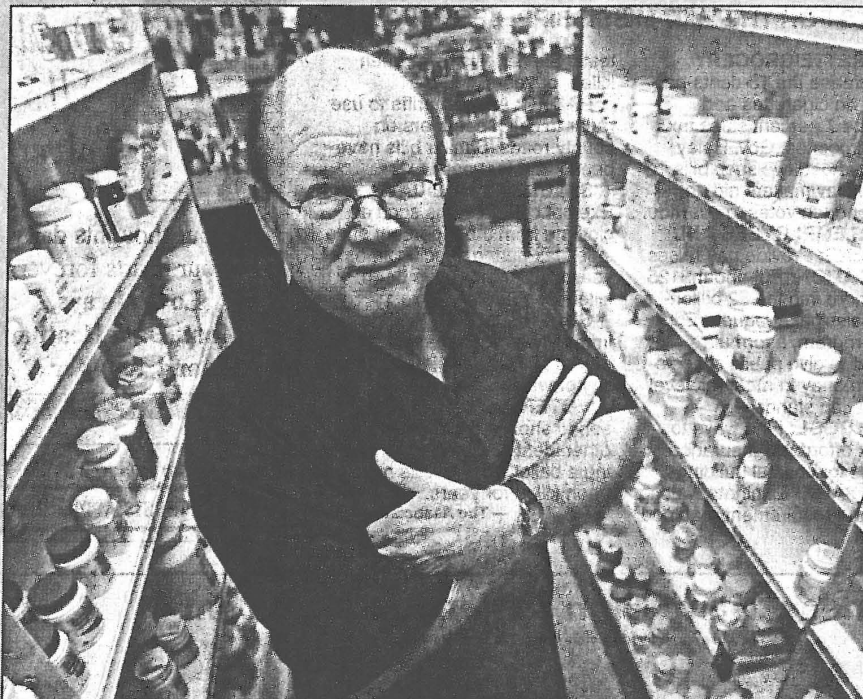

Carol Barrow

Mack Hobbs

Mack Hobbs is the pharmacist and manager for the Escatawpa Sav-Rex, where he has worked for the past ten years. Hobbs was born in Citronella, Ala., and grew up in Mobile County.

Mack moved to the Gulf Coast in 1971 to start his career as a pharmacist. He enjoys the small town atmosphere, since it reminds him of where he grew up. Hobbs says he likes dealing with the people in town and has come to know his many regulars. "I've seen a good many generations pass." Hobbs has raised three children, Lee, Forrest and Creighton with his wife of 41 years, Shirley, and currently they live in Grand Bay.
